DOUGHERTY SAYS HE WILL NOT HEAD CARNIVAL OF 1915

Every inducement is being offered James D. Dougherty, under whose direction the 1914 Mid-Pacific Carnival acquired remarkable success, to take the position of director-general of the celebration next year. This information has come to light as the result of several consultations between Mr. Dougherty and E. H. Paris, president of the board of directors of the Mid-Pacific Carnival, Limited.

A meeting of the new board of the Carnival has been called for tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the rooms of the Merchants' Association, at which time Mr. Dougherty states that he will give his answer to the directors in the matter. At the initial meeting of the board, held some days ago, President Paris expressed himself as being entirely in favor of Mr. Dougherty again taking the position of director-general of the Carnival, offering as an inducement the fact that the Carnival practically being financed, the duties of the director-general next year will not be as complicated and as strenuous as they were this season. Other statements made at the first meeting went to show that the entire board is unanimously in favor of Mr. Dougherty serving again next year.

When seen this morning, however, Mr. Dougherty stated emphatically that his answer to the directors will be "No."

"I have definitely decided that I will not accept the position," he said. "For various reasons I cannot consider the proposition this time."

Y. M. C. A. WORK FOR KOREANS IS WELL UNDER WAY

S. H. Choi, secretary of the recently organized Korean Young Men's Christian Association, is planning the inauguration of a student association in connection with the local Koreru boarding school. Mr. Choi recently was secretary of the student work for Koreans in Tokyo, Japan, and upon his coming to Honolulu he found it obvious that the best way to meet the local Korean young men with Y. M. C. A. privileges was to enter into a two-fold organization, one for city members, the organization of which was perfected last Thursday night, and a student association which now is being organized at the Korean school on Punchbowl street.

At a meeting of prominent local Koreans and association workers last Thursday night, it was unanimously voted to at once organize a Korean association in Honolulu. The plans will be completed at an adjourned meeting to be held at an early date. The matter of a student association will be brought up at a meeting to be held next Saturday evening. Mr. Choi is a well-educated man with a good deal of experience and judgment, and doubtless he will be a valuable addition to the local association workers in the development of educational, physical, social and religious activities among the natives of the hermit kingdom who are residents of Honolulu.

H. K. BISHOP IN PROMINENT EASTERN FIRM

The local business community will be interested in the following announcement which reached here by this morning's mail, in the form of a neatly engraved letter sheet. It is understood that a number of territorial officials as well as heads of several of the larger plantation agencies were recipients of the communication.

City of New York
The announcement is made that Mr. Cornelius C. Vermeule now has associated with him Mr. Hubert K. Bishop, who was from 1909 to 1911 First Deputy Commissioner of Highways of the State of New York, and later Superintendent of Public Works of the Territory of Hawaii.

They will continue the water supply sanitary and hydraulic practice heretofore conducted by Mr. Vermeule and will also give special attention to highways, pavements and seacoast protection.

Mr. Bishop, as will be well remembered, came here several years ago to take charge of the construction of roads on the island of Hawaii, under the recent loan fund expenditure. He was recommended by the office of good roads of the United States department of agriculture. After rendering conspicuously good service in this connection, he was appointed by Governor Frear to the position of superintendent of public works, under the territorial government, succeeding Marston Campbell, but he resigned this position after a few months' tenure in office to accept the position of chief engineer in the construction of the Waialeale tunnel project, by which the large supply of water on the windward side of this island is to be brought through the mountain by means of a great tunnel system, to irrigate the Oahu Sugar Company's plantation on this side. After making notable headway on this project (much faster, it is said, than anticipated), Mr. Bishop resigned his position with the company and left the islands.

Mr. Bishop's Partner.
Cornelius Clarkson Vermeule, Mr. Bishop's partner, is a civil engineer of prominence in New York. He has had charge of some very important engineering problems during the past 35 years. Among these was the conducting of a topographic survey of the state of New Jersey between 1878 and 1888, and he has since continued as consulting engineer of the state geological survey. Since 1888 he has been consulting engineer for many states, cities and private corporations, chiefly in connection with water supplies, drainage, and water power projects. He was in the employ for some time of the government of Cuba in professional capacity, and he obtained action by the U. S. government in 1908 in the rehabilitation of the sanitation of Cienfuegos, Cuba, at a cost of $3,000,000 the work having been much interrupted by political disturbances. Mr. Vermeule has important holdings in numerous large enterprises, and is the author of a number of important engineering treatises.

W. C. Weeks, a wealthy lumberman of the Northwest, who spent the winter in Hawaii, has become so infatuated with Honolulu that he has decided to make this city his wintering place. A deal has just been consummated by which he becomes owner of a beautiful lot at Makiki, and on this property he plans to erect a home. Mr. Weeks will return here this fall and arrange for the construction of the house. The sale of the lot was made by James Pratt.
